THE LORD'S PRAYER

(also known as the OUR FATHER)

| Our _   | ır Father |                  | who art in heaven, $_$ |     |                | hallowed |         |         |
|---|------------------|------------------|-------------------------|-----|----------------|-----------------|---------|---------|
|   | y name.          |                  |                         |     |                |                 |         |         |
| done, on earth as it is in heaven . Given          |                  |                  |                         |     |                |                 | e us th | nis day |
| our   | daily            |  k | read             | ;   | and            | forgive         | e us    | our     |
| tr  | espasses  | as               | we _                    |     | forgive | tł              | nose    | who     |
| tresp   | ass              | against          | us.                     | And |                | lead            |         | us not  |
| into temptation, but deliver us from evil . |                  |                  |                         |     |                |                 |         |         |
| For thine is the kingdom, and the, and                    |                  |                  |                         |     |                |                 |         | _, and  |
| theglory For ever and ever. Amen.                         |                  |                  |                         |     |                |                 |         |         |

