THE LIFE REFLECTIONS OF

Kimberly Janine Chinn-Coleman

Kimberly Janine Brown, "Kim", was born on December 10, 1973 in Chicago, Illinois. She was the first child of Zack B. Brown and Janice Marie Mills. When she was every young, her family relocated to Detroit, Michigan, where she was baptized in the Name of the Lord.

Kim was educated, attending the Detroit Country Day School, where she excelled academically in a variety of subject matters. Kim was a member of the National Honor Society. In addition to her academic pursuits, her extra curriculum activities included being a top-notch cheerleader. Inspiring her younger sister, Bernadette, and her daughter, Hannah to follow in her footsteps and become cheerleaders.

After graduation, Kim, after receiving several offers to attend college, decided on attending the University of Missouri at Kansas City's six year Medical School Program. After three years of study, Kim left college and decided to start her family. However, she later returned to college to finish her degree at Oakland University.

While in medical school, Kim met and was joined in holy matrimony to Roi Le-Thanh Chinn on July 9, 1994. Said union produced four children: Johnathan, Mehgan, Joshua and Hannah. Kim was a very dedicated and caring mother, making sure that her children, no matter the situation, were loved and wanted for nothing. Kim made sure that each of her children got an education and attended college, continuing a family legacy handed down through her family through several generations.

To the rest of the world, Kim was very kind, helpful, loving, caring, empathetic and a free spirit.

During her life, Kim pursued several careers and/or ventures. Kim ran a daycare, worked for and then started her own Home Health Care business. Before she became ill, Kim worked for the North Star Insurance Company in Wentzville, Missouri, in their Customer Service/Call Center department as one of their top salespersons. Kim's goal was to become a licensed insurance agent. Kim also planned to continue her education, before succumbing to her illness, by studying to get her teaching certificate so she could become a science teacher.

Kim is survived by and leaves to cherish and keep alive her memories: her husband, Roi; two daughters, Mehgan Coleman and Hannah Coleman; two sons, Jonathan Coleman and Joshua Coleman; her mother, Janice M. Mills; her father, Zack B. Brown; her sister, Bernadette M. Brown, Esq.; her brother, Zack B. Brown; her nieces, Janelle Brown and Briaighna Brown; her nephew, Zalyn Brown; cousins, aunts, other beloved relatives, co-workers and close friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone, must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
